

ABSTRACT

For a given lookup table ,maximum and minimum values of index values are determined. The lookup table is expanded in both directions by replicating the lowest and highest values to take care
5 of these maximum and minimum values. This reduces the rendering clock count for each pixel.